POETRY.

[The following lines, though wanting mechanical accuracy, we print, because they are the inspirations of a father's wounded breast:]

OUR LITTLE ENMA. She is now an angel bright and fair As ever entered the Courts above.
And as I contemplate her there
My soul is full of love.

Yes, I love my little Emma, Whose absence brings me grief; She was a beautiful flower, Whose life on earth was brief.

How often during the weary nights. When disease racked her frame. Have I stood on tip-toe light.

To hear her breathe again. "Tis end to think that she has gone, So young—perhaps 'tis for the best, That God has taken her home To the regions of the blest.

She will there await our coming, As she did in her earthly home, With cherubic smiles, exclaiming, Mamma-Papa-come!"

Foreign.-The Austrian Government, in sending the Prussian Ambassador his passport, informed him that it took this step because it looked upon the withdrawal of the Austrians from Holstein as taking place under compulsion from the Prussians.

Austria has confided her interests at Berlin and Florence to the Dutch Ministers at those courts. The Ministers of France and Bavaria are said to have declined to look after the Prussian interests at Venice The Prussian army which was in position on the Cicillian frontier was throwing up defenses on all the roads which lead out from Bavaria. Gen. Mortuffel had ordered every pul-lie official and functionary to solemnly engage to submit unconditionally to all orders of the King of Prussia and those acting in his behalf. The Daily News' correspondent, at Florence, says the first hostile movement of Italy will be to throw eighty thousand men in one body across the Po, and following this by pouncing three hundred thousand down on Venetia.

The Vienna correspondent of the Times describes the position of the Austrian army of the north as follows: The centre is between Almustz and Prague; the left wing extends from Prague, by way of the northwestern frontier, to Bohemia, and the right wing from Almustz to Crakrow, where there is a strongly entrenched camp.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 26 .- The President is endeavoring to secure the release of all American citizens now held as prisoners in Canada. It is believed that the response from the British Government.

The Democrats of Congress, except perhaps Senator Harris, of Maryland, indorse the call of the Union Convention at Philadelphia. The restoration of the Southern States to representation is considered by them paramount to all other political issues.

The position of the Democratic members towards the Union Convetion is thus stated: "They are favorably disposed towards such a convention believing that the representation of the Southern States in Congress is not only their right, but it also necessary to the harmony and pacification of the contry." They are willing, therefore, to co-operate with the Union Convention for the purpose; but if it should be perverted from its original and patriotic design, or for the turn.

It is thought the House will adhere to its tax of five cents on cotton, which its tax of five cents on cotton, which its tax of five cents on cotton. The POSTERS POSTERS POSTERS POSTERS POSTERS POSTERS POSTERS ment, and the rate be fixed at two and a half cents.

The Secretary of the Treasury will redeem all certificates of indebtedness falling due after August 31st, with accrued interest thereon, if presented for redemption before July.

The Senate to-day passed the Freedmen's Bureau bill, with an amendment to the House bill, which peremptorily confirms the negroes in the possession of the lands granted them by Sherman's order. The Senate's amendment is that the negroes shall surrender the lands to the owners, except those sold for taxes. The bill goes back to the House.

The Senate has also passed the House bill amendatory of the organization of Washington Territory. It makes the sessions of the Territorial Legislature blennial, instead of annual, and inreases the compensation of members from three to six dellars per day.

The President has approved the bill for the disposal of the public lands for homesteads, for actual settlers, in the States of Alabams, Louisians, Mississippi, Arkansas and Florida. There was nothing of interest done in the House to-day. Prom Louisville.

To Parties Desiring to make IMPORTATIONS FROM EUROPE. M ERCHANTS AND OTHERS DESIRING to make direct importations from Europe would do well to leave orders at TEMPLE, TURLEY & FAIN'S. Cotton Factors and Commission Merchants, No. 396 Main Street.

Mr. W. H. Turley is now on his way to Europe and will spend the summer in France and England. He will, while there, give special attention to any orders that we may send him, at a very low rate of commission, to those wishing goods bought low and shipped direct, thus avoiding great expense.

To railroad men we would say that Mr. M. S. Temple was formerly connected with railroads, as superintendent, and has had experienced purchasing railroad material, supplies and machinery of all kinds. We have fine facilities for filling such orders.
